Larry Page
CEO
Google Inc
1600 Amphitheatre Parkway
Mountain View, CA 94043

Dear Mr. Page:

As a long-time, loyal customer of Google Inc (www.google.com) and publisher of www.GrandLifestyle.com.blogspot.com, I appeal to you though I am forced to use a circuitous method to communicate with you.

Google banned my blog, www.GrandLifestyle.blogspot.com, and is removing my articles from Google search results in response to Pierre Heafey's request to do so whilst tossing unsupported defamation accusations and the false use of a court order spiced with trickery and lies into the ring whereupon Google promptly honored the millionaire real estate mogul's request marking me an unprofessional journalist.

Mr. Page, my disappointment in Google is significantly enhanced by Google's refusal to respond to my communication as evidenced at www.BringTruthToLight.net/googlecensor.html.

First and foremost, I have never published any defamatory material in my life (as confirmed by all court rulings) and as a member of the Society of Professional Journalists firmly conduct my professional life subject to the SPJ's Code of Ethics. Furthermore, if Google's attorneys carefully review the court order of March 7, 2013, they will not find a single word that orders Google to ban my blog from the Internet or finds me guilty of defaming Pierre Heafey, any member of his family, or anyone else. Hence, Google acted carelessly, hastily, and in utter disrespect of my constitutional rights and my status as a loyal Google customer. In addition, The Honorable Ronald C. Dresnick issued a new order on December 2, 2013 which order rescinds all previous orders.

Here's the bottom line.

For the past 25 years I have been informing my Grand Lifestyle readers about the exploitations and illegal activities of Pierre Heafey, have successfully defended myself in defamation lawsuits, and shall continue to bring the truth to light. I trust your careful review of "How desperate are real estate moguls Pierre Heafey and Gino Falsetto to hide the truth?" and your compassion and fairness will take its due course and will permit me to continue being loyal to Google and deliver the truth via my Google-published works.

P.S.: It may please you to know that my efforts as an investigative journalist — and with the help from Google Earth — the individual who ruthlessly cut down a dozen beautiful mahogany trees is now facing justice following the investigation by the Miami-Dade County Department of Environmental Resources Management (DERM).
