Defendant

NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL
BY SANDRA RIEMER AND EDUARDO RIVERA

COME NOW SANDRA RIEMER and EDUARDO RIVERA, through counsel, and file this Notice of Voluntary Dismissal. This dismissal is WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

Plaintiffs state for the record:

1. The Courts have consistently allowed the Defendant, a known con artist and swindler for the past twenty (20) years, to abuse his victims and the courts in an ongoing course of activity designed to blackmail and extort money from his victims. Said activity has gone unpunished.
2. Both the civil and criminal courts favor protecting the criminal rather than achieving justice for the victim. An example of such in this case is the Court's allowance of the Defendant taking depositions and otherwise engaging in "discovery" in a Petition for Injunction. The purpose of the Petition for Injunction was to achieve an order instructing the Defendant to cease harassing, stay away from, and refrain from contacting the Plaintiffs. By allowing the Defendant to depose the Plaintiffs, the Court allowed the Defendant to further harass them.

3. While believing in the righteousness of their cause, Plaintiffs, by dismissing this action, make a business decision not to pursue at this time their cause in the courts against an individual who has proven himself an immoral manipulator always one step ahead of the law.

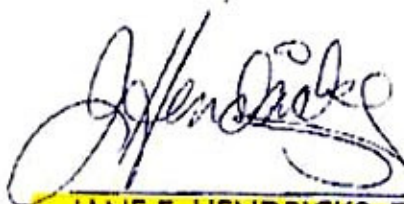

4. Plaintiff will rely on the police and security measures to protect themselves from Defendant's intrusions upon private property and any threats to their families from Defendant.

5. The justice system is lost to the victim, even if he/she has the time and the money to litigate.

THEREFORE Plaintiffs voluntarily dismiss this cause without prejudice.
