Anna Kournikova works out at Grove Isle

Our own, venerable and enviable tennis director Norm Schellenger played host to the admirable Anna Kournikova on the Grove Isle courts.

Norm has worked out in the past with Mary Jo Fernandez, Andy Roddick, and the U.S. Fed Cup team.

Yes, indeed, pro Norm also works out with Anna Kournikova.

By the way, Anna is not wearing war paint. The smiles of the two tennis aces confirm it.

GROVE ISLE TENNIS RULES

RESERVATIONS

- Reservations will be taken beginning at 8:00 am on Thursday to reserve courts for Saturday, and 8:00 am on Friday to reserve courts for Sunday.
- The tennis staff will receive reservations by alternating one walk-in then one call-in reservation until the courts are filled.
- When making a singles reservation both players should be listed, and at least three players listed for a doubles reservation.
- To reserve a court for night play on a weekend, the reservation must be made by 5:00 pm on Friday to ensure that the lights will be turned on.

ASSIGNED COURT TIMES

- Check in with the tennis staff prior to taking your reserved court. If you have a guest, pay the guest fee ($10.00 weekday, $20.00 weekend, $5.00 league players) prior to taking a court. If fees are not paid, the tennis staff is instructed to bill your account.

- Do not approach the court gate until your assigned time, and if play is in progress on the court, allow the players to finish the point being played prior to entering.

COURT COMPORIMENT

- Use end gates to enter a court. Do not cross any court when players are on it.
- Keep noise to a minimum in order not to distract players on an adjoining court.
- Be sure to return towels which have been checked out in order to ensure that a supply is available in the future.
- If there is a dispute on court assignments, ask the tennis staff to solve the problem. Do not take matters into your own hands.
- Conduct such as swearing or insulting other players will not be tolerated under any circumstances.
